Welcome to _____

_____ Dr. Philip May • Senior Pastor

From the Pastor's Desk

Graduation represents a culmination of work completed by students, teachers, parents and sometimes grandparents. I recall Dad helping me with math. I could not write a poem. Dad was there after he got home from work to help me with a subject for the poem. Science projects were the worst. We had to compete in science fairs. He helped me dissect a fish and put the parts in preservative. We had the big drawings on the poster board and of course, the research paper was put in a notebook. That was the only ribbon I ever won. I'll never forget how proud mom and dad were when I graduated from college—the first to get a college degree in our family.

Today, we congratulate and celebrate with our graduates. I've watched many of you grow up from the nursery until this great time of achievement. God has wonderful plans for all of us. Your future as a graduate has just begun to unfold before you.

Today, I'll build my message around one verse of scripture. If you follow the life lessons from this verse, you will experience success as defined by the Lord!

Your Pastor,
Philip May
