

April 3, 2022

We ought always to thank God for you, brothers and sisters, and rightly so, because your faith is growing more and more, and the love all of you have for one another is increasing.

2 Thessalonians 1-3 NIV

Welcome to _____ pleasant valley south baptist church

From the Pastor's Desk

I met two employees of a nearby business. A third employee told the others, "He's a Baptist preacher." You never know what response that statement will bring. The new acquaintances asked, "Where do you pastor?" I told them, "PVSBC in Silver Creek." One lady told me she and her children visited here many years ago. The other lady just moved to Polk county.

Both of these employees said they have to work every Sunday. "We never can make it to church because of our work schedule." I shared with them about our contemporary and traditional services are on our website; we have two services but one message. One lady said that she loves Contemporary style with casual dress. I was surprised to hear the youngest ask, "Do y'all sing hymns? They are important to me."

I will follow up with them. That's another ministry opportunity. There are people who want to come to church, but their profession prohibits their attendance. Who has the Lord placed in your path. Who needs a touch from you?

Your Pastor,
Philip May
