The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

From the Pastor's Desk

Delaine and I saw a couple at a wedding about ten days ago. I officiated at their service. They told us they have been married for seventeen years, and they have a beautiful girl. The wife told me, "It's been hard work, but we've made it." I congratulated them for their efforts.

I heard about another couple that I had conducted their service thirty-five years ago. They have two grown children that are very successful. Then, we got the news of a twenty-five year marriage that led to divorce. Delaine and I love that couple. They have three children. Our hearts are broken over this collapse of a home.

Valentine's Day reminds us to tell those who are special to us "I love you". It's sad that we need a national day to remind us. I try to remember every day to tell Delaine how much I love her. We need to practice telling our brothers and sisters in Christ we love them. Bonnie Clark is correct. I love you is what we need to tell people daily.

Your pastor,
Philip May
