"BE ANGRY, AND DO NOT SIN":
DO NOT LET THE SUN
GO DOWN ON YOUR WRATH,
NOR GIVE PLACE TO THE DEVIL.

Ephesians 4:26-27 NKJV

Welcome to ————— pleasant valley south baptist church

From the Pastor's Desk

I think we as a nation have lost our mind by declaring every day of the year a special day. We read this is National Peanut Day, National Donut Day, National Oreo Day, National Take Your Dog to the Spa Day, National Ice Cream Day, etc. At some point, the word "special" loses significance and uniqueness.

I am glad we celebrate July 4. The national leaders were not self-centered politicians. They were Godly men who were preserving life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. They desired a nation that realized freedom is God given, not government granted. The founders were willing to sacrifice not only their material possessions, but their lives for this freedom. How we need leaders with this kind of God fearing and selfless spirit in the 21st century.

I believe it is appropriate that we remember the sacrifices and blessings God has given us as a nation. We worship today without fear of persecution. What an appropriate day to remember this nation was founded as "On Nation Under God"!

Thank you Lord for allowing us to live in America. May we be agents of change for your Kingdom in our culture.

Your Pastor,
Philip May

SERMON OUTLINE

America's Missing Link Proverbs 1:7

The major missing link in America is that we have lost our fear of God.

- A. A picture of the f_____ of God
- B. The f_____ of God must become personal
- c. Practically live the f_____ of God before others

When you fear God, you have nothing left to fear, not even fear itself. That is what life is all about.
