Welcome to — pleasant valley south baptist church

— Dr. Philip May • Senior Pastor

From the Pastor's Desk

When Delaine and I moved here in 1997, we had no idea we would celebrate 27 Christmas seasons with you. You have been our family and even closer as we experienced the home-going of parents and other family members. You have been a constant source of encouragement to us, and you have made every Christmas very special.

I heard Paul Harvey many years ago on his radio program say: "It is sad that we buy greeting cards to say for us what we ought to be writing to people who are special to us." That has led us, along with card companies endorsing non-biblical practices, to make cards to each other.

Delaine and I hope you have the best Christmas ever. As we celebrate the birth of the King of Kings, we do so recalling His sinless life, sacrifice, the blood at the cross and the resurrection. We are just rehearsing what we will do for eternity, praising the King in heaven. What is so special among brothers and sisters in Christ in a church is that we will know one another even as we are known. Think about this—we will all meet at the throne of Jesus, worshipping forever.

Merry Christmas

Phil and Delaine

*As you celebrate Christmas, remember the birth of our Savior!
Merry Christmas to you from your church family.*

*"Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and bear a Son,
and they shall call His name Immanuel, God with us."
Matt. 1:23*
