From the Pastor's Desk

Spring Break is an important event for the teachers and students. Before the school year begins, all the breaks and holidays are placed on the school calendars. Parents schedule vacations around these dates. Big trips are planned. These “getaways” are seen as a time to break our routine and schedule rest. Families make memories during this special time of year.

Jesus often took some “get aways” for the purpose of prayer.

Mark 14:32-37 NIV

32 They went to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus said to His disciples, “Sit here while I pray.” 33 He took Peter, James and John along with Him, and He began to be deeply distressed and troubled. 34 “My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death,” He said to them. “Stay here and keep watch.”

35 Going a little farther, He fell to the ground and prayed that if possible the hour might pass from him. 36 “Abba, Father,” He said, “everything is possible for You. Take this cup from Me. Yet not what I will, but what You will.”

37 Then He returned to His disciples and found them sleeping. “Simon,” He said to Peter, “are you asleep? Couldn't you keep watch for one hour?”

Have you ever fallen asleep while praying? All of us are guilty. Have you fallen asleep in a theme park? No Way! The cost is so high, you don't want to miss a moment.

Our desire for time alone with God and mediate on His word are vital to our spiritual growth. Those getaway times are when God reveals His direction for us. One of the most exciting experiences for a believer is to know for sure you are following God's best for you. How much do you anticipate your time alone with Him?

Your pastor,
Philip May

Why should I have any fear in a world I know You hold?
You've been faithful all these years
And I have confidence You're still on the throne
You're still the Rock of Ages, God over everything
Even when evil rages, You're still the Prince of Peace
You're still good, You're still God!
If it all falls apart, I'm going to keep on trusting
You are who You say You are, You're still King!
