Dr. Steven Parr

Dr. Parr has served with distinction in local churches as a staff member as well as the interim pastor of fifteen congregations. He is a graduate of Shorter University, has a Master of Divinity Degree in Christian Education from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, and a Doctor of Ministry degree in Church Growth and Evangelism from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He was featured on the twentieth anniversary of the Billy Graham School of Evangelism of Southern Seminary for making a Great Commission impact around the world. He served on the Georgia Baptist Mission Board team leading in Bible Study leader training, Evangelism, Next Gen Ministry, and ultimately on the Executive level providing leadership of a staff of over 175. He currently serves as the Executive Director of Georgia's largest association of churches, the Gwinnett Metro Baptist Network. Learn more about the Network at www.gwinnettmetro.com.

Saturday, November 30, 2024

An informal meeting will be held at 4 pm in the AGR with Ken Hall. A meal will be provided. For this purpose, please let us know by November 26 if you can attend.

Church to Vote Next Sunday, December 1st, on Interim Pastor

At the conclusion of the morning service on December 1st, the church will vote to officially call Rev. Ken Hall as the Interim Pastor of PVSBC. Rev. Hall preached for us on October 20th, and will preach again on December 1. Pastor Ken and his wife, Robin, will be meeting with our deacons and our Personnel Team on Saturday evening November 30. With church approval, Pastor Ken will begin his interim pastorate on January 12, 2025.
